PREFACE

All praises to the Almighty God for the blessings and grace to us to be able to compile and publish the articles for the IAGI journal. We are proud to continuously present IAGI Journal, 1st volume of 2nd edition, August 2021. IAGI journal has been set up to facilitate any idea, breakthroughs, and scientific findings from Geoscience scholars, professional industries, researchers, academicians and other professions.

IAGI Journal is one of the few journals in the Geoscience realm the type of research papers and review papers. In this edition, the articles cover several topics of research, such as Petroleum Geology, Sedimentology and Petrography, Structural Geology, Mineral Exploration. All submitted papers in this journal are first delivered at the 49th Annual Convention & Exhibition 2020. In accordance with the editorial concern, we are open to receiving any topics of Geology and try to alternate many topics within each publication.

The journal publication is possible to be published from the massive efforts of editorial boards, cooperative authors and reviewers. We continue to owe a large debt of gratitude to the Indonesian Association of Geologists (IAGI) for considerable support, professionalism and patience to IAGI Journal editorial boards. In the future, we are expecting to have a collaboration with many parties to sustain the submitted papers to our journal.

Finally, we are hoping to spread a broader insight through the publication of the Geoscience works. Thank you for the unwavering support and we are waiting for your paper to be published in our journal.

Editor in Chief

Prof. Dr. Ir. Ildrem Syafri, DEA
